

Benefits to you as a Friend of Coton

- The knowledge that you are supporting an important historical building nearly 300 years old, as well as contributing to the safe keeping of its collection of objects.
- Special price reductions for events put on by the Trust.
- Special events for Friends of Coton.
- Regular email or printed Newsletters.
- The chance to become a volunteer and help to run the Centre

Benefits to the Centre of having you as a Friend

- The knowledge that we have supporters willing to encourage our efforts with their time and their money.
- The opportunity to use the Friends of Coton as a sounding board for future ideas and developments.
- The chance to borrow the skills and expertise of our Friends.
- The knowledge that our Friends are also our best ambassadors.

We welcome volunteers from all walks of life who can contribute to the work of the Centre. This might include people with office or IT skills, an interest in looking after artefacts, or researching local history, or it might include people who enjoy cleaning and polishing, dusting or general maintenance of an old building.

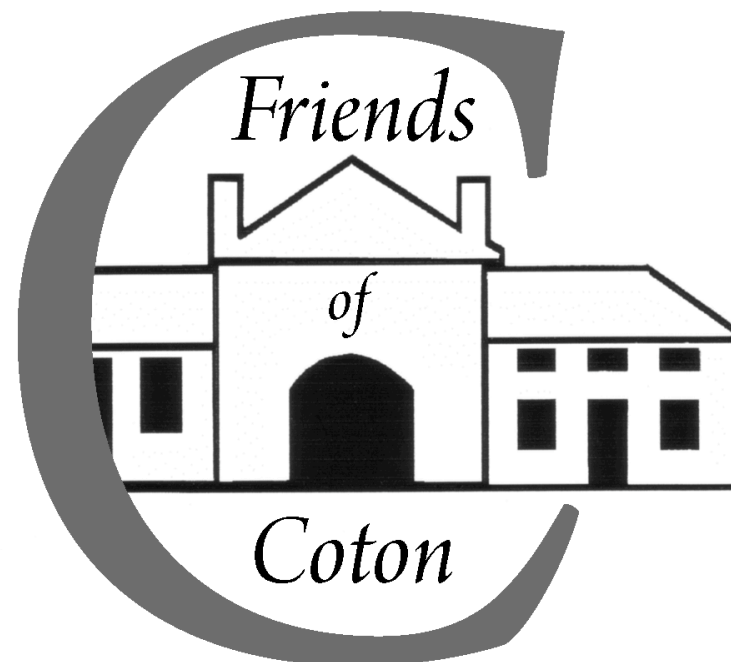

If you think you might be interested please add a few comments below explaining where your strengths lie and what you think you could contribute to the Centre.
